

Culture and Trauma Speaker Series (Part II)

The NCTSN Culture and Trauma Consortium is pleased to continue its Culture and Trauma Speaker Series. Join us the third Wednesday of each month between June, 2009 and April, 2010 for exciting and engaging discussions on the fusion of culture and trauma in clinical practice. Below are the first four presentations of the series; more to follow on topics such as the clinical application of spirituality, cultural considerations of working with African-Americans Post-Katrina, and cultural adaptations of Child-Parent Psychotherapy with Latino clients.
